

My and me!

Through making the playdough, children learn about measuring and quantity. It also provides an opportunity for counting. Children learn about mixing and kneading.

Everyone was able to take their playdough home and continue with their learning.

Learning to make playdough is fun and a great way to get parents and children to work together and take the lead by creating their own unique dough following a simple recipe.

Come and take a look at the fabulous learning opportunities that happen along the way!
